HORACE S. PERRY HANGED.

Accompanied By Strong
Guard to Gallows.

THE WIFE APPEALED IN VAIN.

One of the Most Sensational Incidents in the Criminal Records of Georgia.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 8.—Horace S. Perry, who was sentenced to death for the murder of Bely Lanier, was hanged at Decatur this afternoon. His wife and five children remained with him all night in the jail. He was accompanied all the way to Decatur by a strong guard in consequence of the reports that were freely circulated that an attempt would be made to rescue him by his friends.

This closes what has been one of the most sensational cases in the history of this state. After he had been convicted his wife made affidavit that Lanier had assaulted her and that her husband killed him in revenge for the deed.

Able counsel carried the case before the Governor and sought to have Perry reprieved; his wife also went before the Governor and made a heart-breaking appeal for the rescue of her children from the odium of the gallows, but Governor Atkinson refused to interfere. A former boarder at Perry's house came from Key West on Monday to substantiate the statement of Mrs. Perry but it was to no purpose.

No attempt was made to rescue the prisoner and the execution passed off quietly.

CONSUL GENERAL LEE ARRIVES.

May Not Return to Cuba According to Reports.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, United States Consul General to Havana, arrived here this morning from Cuba on the Ward Line Steamship Segurana, with his son Robert L. Oliver, United States Consul at Merida.

According to official statements General Lee comes to this country on leave of absence for thirty days, but it is probable that he will not return to his post of duty in Cuba. It is thought that his resignation, which was handed in soon after the present administration came in, will be accepted while he is in the United States, and that Mr. McKinley will appoint his successor.

STRIKE ABOUT ENDED.

Less than a Hundred Men are Out To-day.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. The indications now are that the vest makers' strike will probably be declared off. Today the number of men out has been reduced to less than one hundred. A few contractors who have been holding out in the hope that the strikers would submit, were anxious to sign a new agreement today.

The cloak makers here ordered a few strikes and settled some old ones. Quite a number of new shops held meetings last night and prepared demands.

The cigarette makers are still out.

AFRIDS RISING PETERING OUT.

Tribes Vacating the Country Around the Khyber Pass.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SIMLA, Sept. 8.—In official circles here it is considered as evident that the rising of the tribesmen against the British is rapidly losing its force.

The general officers commanding report that the Afridis have dispersed. News has also been received at headquarters saying that the Seakkahels are removing their families from the Khyber district to Tirah.

This report has been confirmed, and there is no longer any doubt that the enemy are leaving the Samona territory.

$200,000 Hunting an Owner.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 8.—Custom inspectors at Laredo found an unclaimed grip on the train today containing $200,000 worth of diamonds, jewelry and other valuables.

Morgan Gone to Hawaii.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Senator Morgan, of Alabama, sailed yesterday on the steamer Australia for Honolulu. It is said he will go from there to China and Japan.

Two Things We Have Found Out!

Two things we have found out, only two, but they are certain:

FIRST—Greensboro needs more new buildings, more dwelling houses.

SECOND—If you want people to see a thing, and read it, put it in THE TELEGRAM. How did we find out these two things? Just this way: Notice of two houses to rent was put in our want column with instructions to call at this office; over thirty people called in a week bringing a clipping of the notices.

And thus we know that Greensboro is growing and that people

LET THERE BE LIGHT.

To Announce the Approach of the Silent Stead.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 8, '97.

The nature of the soil in this section makes it almost necessary for cyclists, if they ride at all, to ride upon the sidewalks. The board of aldermen very wisely granted them this privilege upon all streets except Fayetteville, but such permission should be slightly restricted. Almost all the larger towns in the state have restrictions as to speed, and also require lamps to be carried at night. It is the latter requirements that High Point needs at present. Several accidents have occurred which should serve as warnings in this particular. Wheelmen who ride the sidewalks after dark should be compelled to provide lights for their wheels, as many of our streets are very dark, and it is almost impossible for either rider or pedestrian to detect the approach of the other.

The services at the warehouse last night were conducted by Mr. Fife, who preached from the text, "Roll ye away from the storm," taken from John 11-39.

The Farabee gold mine will be put in operation in a short time. Mr. B. W. Sweet, of Knoxville, Tenn., is superintending the work. This mine was at one time very productive, and it is thought that it will prove a good investment if properly managed.

It is rumored that High Point is to have a carriage and buggy factory in the near future.

The building to be occupied as a paint factory on Main street is nearing completion. High Point is proud of this new industry.

It is a pleasure to see the radiant faces as they go to and from the graded school building, where examinations are in progress this week.

Jail Birds Uncaged.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 8.—Early this morning parties on the outside saw two iron bars of a window of the county jail and entered the corridor where they unlocked the doors of two cells and liberated Roseberger, a notorious horse and bicycle thief. They also liberated Barney Devin, a burglar. Sheriff Woodell did not discover the escape until after daylight this morning.

After Cuban Filibusters.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., Sept. 8.—The Broad street depot was thronged with secret service men from Washington, for the purpose of arresting the members of a Cuban filibustering expedition, which was to have arrived at the station here this morning early and go from there across the river to Camden, New Jersey, where a start was to have been made for Cuba.

Working on the Reports.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Secretary Gage, of the Treasury department, is engaged in the arduous task of making out his annual report. The bureau officials have been instructed to make their reports this year a month or six weeks earlier than usual.

Comptroller Trackwell is the first to make a report. His report was submitted to Secretary Gage today.

John L. at His Old Tricks.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—John L. Sullivan was arrested last night at Lewiston, Maine, for assaulting a hack driver. He refused to pay the driver's demand. This morning he was arraigned in the police court and settled his difficulty by paying the driver and cost of the court.

Andrews Will Not Reconsider.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 7.—It is unofficially announced that Dr. Andrews will insist on the acceptance of his resignation from the presidency of Brown University. The decision was arrived at after a conference this afternoon between Dr. Andrews and the advisory and the executive committees of the corporation. His connection with the Cosmopolitan University, it is thought, will take up too much time to permit his dividing his attention with both universities.

His decision is in spite of a letter received by him from the faculty begging him to remain.

Charlotte Football Team.

The Charlotte Y. M. C. A. football team was organized yesterday with some of the best material available. It is the purpose of the team to play the noted Hampton, Va., team this year, as well as the North Carolina teams.

The News says the Charlotte team will likely remain the State champions. It might be well to wait until Greensboro is defeated before making any such claims, for we also have a team which is expected to carry off the championship.

On Trial for His Life.

Johnnie Austin, a ten-year-old boy, was today put on trial for his life in the criminal court at Charlotte. The crime for which young Austin stands indicted is the murder of his playmate about six weeks ago.

The case is a peculiarly sad one, on account of the youthfulness of the criminal, and is the cause of much interest and sympathy. A special venire has been summoned and the best legal talent is employed on both sides.

Organizing.

B. H. Woodell, secretary of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows in this State, came up last night from Raleigh and attended the meeting of the Buena Vista lodge. His visit was a treat to the members of the lodge, and his many friends here were glad to see him.

He left this morning for Charlotte, where he is to organize a Rebecca degree in one of the lodges.

New Orleans Withdraws Quarantine.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.—This official statement was sent to the Associated Press to-night: "The board of health has withdrawn quarantine restrictions against all points on the gulf coast, upon certificate from its own health officers, of the non-existence of suspicious fever, except in Ocean Springs and Biloxi."

TO STAMP THE FEVER OUT.

A Rigid Quarantine Has Been Established.

AND EVERY PRECAUTION TAKEN

To Guard Against the Introduction of the Fever Into Mobile—Sent to the Detention Camp.

MOBILE, Ala., September 7.—Every precaution has been taken to guard against introduction of fever into Mobile. Rigid quarantine has been established by the land and water, and half a dozen persons who got in before the quarantine arrangements were completed have been sent to the detention camp, 15 miles out, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. At this camp all travelers who come from coast points, or from New Orleans, must remain ten days in quarantine. No train crews are allowed to come into town. A close examination by the physicians here enables the board of health to say positively that there is no case of a suspicious nature in Mobile. Marine Hospital Surgeon Murray will be here to-night and has arranged to leave in the morning with 50 trusty men for Ocean Springs to form a cordon around the place and to confine and stamp out the disease there as the Marine Hospital service did to the fever at Brunswick, Ga. There is no fever at Scranton, so far as can be learned, nor at any other point except Ocean Springs.

Herr Most Goes to Buffalo.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Herr Most, the anarchist leader of this city, left for Buffalo this morning on the Empire State Express. All the anarchist headquarters are deserted today. Herr Most says he will stay in Buffalo at least a year.

TOO MODEST BY FAR.

In conversation with a man who is acquainted with all sections of the country and is possessed of wide information, the question of the dormant possibilities of North Carolina was touched upon, and also the progress she has been making in the last few years, especially in the manufacture of cotton goods. Taking Alamance county, which has over twenty cotton mills, as an example, he declared that there were many Northern manufacturers who do not know that there are twenty cotton mills in the entire State. We do not believe this to be an exaggeration. Very few people outside of the State, and a great many in it indeed, have no idea of her industrial growth.

The reason for this is simply that she has made no effort to inform the world in general either of what is being done or what might be done within her borders. New enterprises are mentioned in the papers circulating in the State, live one brief day in print and the knowledge of them goes the way of yesterday's paper. No information, in accessible form, is placed in the way of possible investors; no record of her achievements is obtainable outside of her own borders; no evidence of her potentialities is furnished to those who might help her to realize them.

Take the present centennial at Nashville as an example. Other states of the union, that are seeking a development of their resources, have state buildings; in those buildings are pamphlets setting forth the resources of the state and the advantages offered investors. The products of mine and forest, loom and forge; the sweep of river and the stretch of fallow fields; the salubrity of climate and the beauty of natural scenery; lines of railroad and institutions of learning; whatever does make or may make a state great is clearly, attractively, artistically set forth. And of North Carolina, what? Nothing, absolutely nothing. Not a pamphlet, not a specimen, not even an official representative to speak a good word for her or keep others in memory that she exists.

And the reason for all this? Not one man in a hundred could tell. It is simply a doleful fact, that is all. No appropriation was made by the state and no steps taken by enterprising private citizens to see that she was represented in the sisterhood of states. We wandered over the centennial grounds in Nashville for a time in search of something to show that there was such a place as North Carolina, but the search was vain; we asked an employee in one of the buildings if North Carolina had an exhibit of any kind at the centennial and was answered in the negative. Nearly all of the other southern states had buildings, but North Carolina, not even a sample of her far-famed "tar, pitch and turpentine."

And the result of all this? Men in search of homes, men in search of investments for capital, men in search of healthful climate, men in search of timber and water power and winter homes will carry hundreds of thousands into those states and bring nothing into ours. These states will draw wealth, population, new industries from outside which would have come to us if an effort had been made to secure them.

If a prospective investor were to seek for information on North Carolina he would find nothing more definite, in accessible form, than he could get from a history or geography, a report of the agricultural department or the geological survey. If any pamphlets or books, illustrated and attractively gotten up, have ever been published, they have been suppressed with a vigor and certainty that would tickle a Russian censor of the press.

We are paying for these things, paying for them in years of stunted growth and meagre commerce; in poor schools, in small towns, continued poverty. There may be something in a state working out its own salvation but we do not believe the returns justify the sacrifice. It were better to let the world know what we are doing, to give it an earnest of what may be done hereafter.

THE regular periods at which Senator Gorman issues reports that he may retire from the Senate, and has only been prevented from doing so earlier by the persuasion of friends, is pretty positive proof that a little more persuasion would be gratefully received.

TEDDY ROOSEVELT has issued a pamphlet on "America's Naval Policy." Teddy considers himself a specialist on everything that concerns the government from the financial question to incubating salmon. Versatile, indeed, is Teddy.

IN KING MENELIK'S domain cartridges circulate as currency. The Italian army can bear testimony that the King's subjects have plenty of pocket change and are not averse to blowing it in.

RESIDENTS in the towns near the seat of the yellow fever scare are not exactly engaged in singing "I would not live always," though the chorus swells when they come to the "I ask not to stay."

NOTING the results of one dose of fusion on North Carolina one looks with some apprehension for the probable fate of Colorado which is preparing to try four doses at one time.

THE fact that Mr. Irby did not get himself interviewed for two whole days is proof positive that he has struck a town, somewhere, that has reporters fleet of foot.

THERE is nothing so strange in Foo Lee, the Chinese laundryman, becoming a crack bicycle rider. It's not such a far cry from an ironer to a scorcher.

IT is to be hoped that Consul General Lee did not forget to provide himself with a few of Miss Cisneros' latest photographs before leaving Havana.

SAFELY SECRETED.

A Woman Hides Her Jewels, and the Police Have to Help Find Them.

Mrs. Ella L. Swayne, an attractive widow of West Seventy seventh street, New York, would have been spared three weeks of anxiety and her household would not have been thrown into a state of uneasiness had she remembered where she had put a chamois bag containing jewelry valued at $3,600 and four $100 bills for safe keeping.

One of the servants saw the bag on a table on Aug. 8, and, fearing her mistress had forgotten the jewelry, carried the bag to her room. Mrs. Swayne examined the contents of the bag, found everything safe and tucked the bag away in a nook in a bureau drawer.

Mrs. Swayne wanted to wear the jewelry the next day, but the bag could not be found. Every one in the house was questioned. No one had seen the bag, the jewels or the money.

Detectives were called to the house, and they peered into every nook and cranny, examined all the doors and windows and shadowed everybody who was in or came to the house. They found nothing.

The episode had almost been forgotten when the police captain of the precinct received a note from Mrs. Swayne stating that the jewels had been found. One of the detectives called at Mrs. Swayne's residence to learn where they had been found.

"It was among some sewing in a bureau drawer on the third floor, just where I put it," Mrs. Swayne said sweetly.

"Just like a woman!" muttered the detective.—New York Herald.

"AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

Body Bound In Alpine Ice Released at the Base of the Range.

Captain Henry Arkwright, who was aid-de-camp to the lord lieutenant of Ireland, a guide, Michel Simond, and two porters, Francois and Joseph Tonnier, were killed by an avalanche on the grand plateau of Mont Blanc in October, 1866. The bodies of the guide and the porters were found after a week, but Captain Arkwright's body was only recently recovered from the ice, 9,000 feet below where he died. All except the feet and head was recovered. The right hand was marvelously life-like. The ice had preserved in it the red tint of blood.

From the pocket of his gray waistcoat was drawn a white, blue bordered handkerchief as good as new, with his name on it. The deceased officer's collar had in it a gold stud, and in his shirt front was a larger one, set with a diamond star. The wreck of a silver cigarette case was in his pocket, and his gold watch and chain were on the ice near where the body was found. The justice of the peace, the mayor, a doctor and the local gendarmes held an inquest over the body, found after a lapse of a little over 80 years, in the shadow of Mont Blanc.—New York Tribune.

Why He Kept Away From the Klondike.

They had been talking of the Klondike. "But you have nothing to lose," urged the other.

The man shrugged his shoulders and drew his bag together. "With bacon at $1 a pound!" he said ironically.

"When have you tasted bacon here at 10 cents?" questioned the other. Again the man shrugged and tucked in his bags.

"And flour at $50 a barrel." "When have you tasted bread?" Again that silent shrug.

"You are starving now," persisted the other.

"Yes, but—" "But what?" "It's cheaper to starve here!" And it is also warmer.—Chicago Record.

Sudermann's Drama Forbidden.

In Berlin the police have forbidden the representation of Hermann Sudermann's new drama, "Saint John," alleging that subjects borrowed from the Old or the New Testament ought not to be put upon the stage. The management of the Deutsches theater says that it is taking steps to have this measure repealed. Meanwhile it has invited the dramatic critics of Berlin to a private meeting, where, upon hearing the play read by Sudermann himself, they may be able to judge of the reasons which could have influenced so rigorous a censure. The first representation of the drama was to take place in October.

Only One in the United States.

The Winston Sentinel is responsible for the following:

"Mr. D. H. King tells the Sentinel that during his recent trip North he visited a town where no intoxicating liquors of any kind are sold. It is a prohibition town in the strictest sense. Neither can one buy tobacco or cigars of any kind. Vehicles are not allowed to run on Sunday, nor horses driven. Even wheelmen are compelled to lead their bicycles outside of the corporate limits before they can ride them on the Lord's day."

Good Music.

Arrangements have been made to have the Durham band furnish good music on the Asheville excursion September 14th. Some of the best citizens of Durham, Raleigh, Greensboro and Salisbury will go with this excursion.

The fare from Greensboro to Asheville is so very cheap (it being only $2.00) that all who wish to take such a trip should not fail to avail themselves of this opportunity.

A FINE OPENING.

The G. F. College Has the Largest Opening Since the War.

The indications are that Greensboro Female College is on the eve of the most successful year in the history of the institution.

The session opened this morning with nearly eighty students, over fifty of whom are boarders. This is a remarkably fine showing, when it is remembered that it will be a week or two before all the students arrive.

Not since the war has such a large number been present on the opening day.

President Peacock and his associates deserve this encouragement, for they have worked hard during vacation to fill the college, and it is a source of gratification to them to see how well their efforts have been rewarded. It is expected that the college will be filled to its limit in a short time.

The teachers are at their posts with the determination to make this most successful year in the history of old G. F. C.

A Card From Mr. Forbis.

MR. EDITOR.—In your issue of the 6th inst. you state, editorially, that you have "a great many complaints, from subscribers, who receive their papers through the mails, both IN and OUT of the city."

"We wish to disclaim all responsibility from such irregularity, and place it where it belongs—on the mail service."

This statement reflects upon the service of this office in particular, (for you say both IN and OUT of the city) and upon the outside system generally.

As one slightly interested in the efficiency of the mail service in this city, and also the general system, I wish to disclaim, on behalf of the mail service, responsibility, for the reason that I do not know where to place it.

I am almost confident that every copy that passes through this office for city subscribers to THE TELEGRAM is regularly and correctly delivered.

The separating clerk, of this office, informs me that he is familiar with all the names of mail subscribers in this city and has had no trouble, except in one instance, and he has recently been informed that this one went to Proximity Cotton Mills.

Respectfully,

J. W. FORBIS, P. M.

[We take pleasure in printing the card of Mr. Forbis and will take this occasion to ask all mail subscribers to promptly report any irregularity in writing to this office that such may be made the basis of an investigation through the proper channels.—Ed.]

Veterinary Association.

The North Carolina Veterinary Association convened in Charlotte yesterday, and will adjourn today. Dr. J. W. Petty, of this city, who is secretary and treasurer of the association, is in attendance.

President Ellis' address was listened to with marked attention. It was encouraging and helpful to the advancement of veterinary science. He urged the importance of strict sanitary regulations in regard to milk and meat.

"The veterinary surgeon," said Dr. Ellis, "stands between the diseases of the lower animals and mankind. Especially is this so in reference to tuberculosis (consumption). We think the day is near at hand when all cities will have inspection made of food."

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the association in Greensboro some time in December.

Moonlight Drive to Battle Ground.

A very charming moonlight drive was given to the ladies of the Benbow last night in honor of Mrs. Gill, who is soon to leave for her old home at Toledo, Ohio. The party left at 9 o'clock and drove out to the Battle ground, where they had lunch and returned after twelve. It was an ideal night for such an expedition and the party voted it delightful. The ladies of the party were: Mrs. Gill, Mrs. Brantley, Mrs. Bamford and Misses O'Brien and Brown; the men were: Messrs. E. L. Gilmer, Tom Tate, Julius Cone, Winslow, John Cator and John Fariss.

Wants to Locate in Greensboro.

Greensboro is becoming more favorably known to the outside world every day, and people who have never before taken any interest in the place are attracted by the flattering inducements our city holds out.

THE TELEGRAM is in receipt of a communication from a business man of one of the principal towns of Eastern North Carolina who wishes to know the prospects of locating here in his line of business. To such as these Greensboro extends a welcome hand.

Important Meeting.

An important meeting of Greensboro Council No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. There are several candidates to initiate into the secrets of the order, and it is desired that all the members be present.

All those who expect to attend flag-raising at High Point on the 17th are asked to be present.

A Pleasant Occasion.

The Baptist Young People's Union gave a pleasant social at the residence of R. W. Brooks last evening. Quite a crowd of young people were present to enjoy the occasion, and it was pronounced by all a most pleasant affair.

Good music was a special feature of the evening, and some of the little ones rendered charming recitations.

More Improvements on Davie.

We noted one day last week that A. T. Robertson's house on North Davie was being raised above the new street level. Mr. Carroll will follow this excellent example by having his two houses, adjoining this property, raised and will otherwise improve his property there.
